OSU Inclusion Leadership Council

VISION

Emerge as a knowledgeable and engaged entity to facilitate a proactive and positive culture of inclusion throughout the Oklahoma State University (OSU) system and assist the Division of Institutional Diversity in its overall vision.

MISSION

To serve as an advisory body to the Vice President for Institutional Diversity (VPID) and OSU Chief Diversity Officer (CDO) on practical and meaningful opportunities to sustain and enrich a culture of inclusion across OSU and cultivate broader engagements within the university community.

PURPOSE

Work as ambassadors on behalf of the VPID within the Council member organizations, as well as throughout the university, to identify opportunities for programs and events focused on elevating diversity and inclusion in the community through supportive and encouraging efforts. Serve as a resource of motivation and inspire a broader commitment to a culture of inclusion throughout the university and community.

GOALS

Consistently advise the VPID regarding significant and sustained efforts to create meaningful and positive change across the OSU community.
